FOOD FOR THOUGHT

PEACE

Anxiety is a difficult emotion to deal with. It steals the ability to be at rest. The issues that weigh heavily on our shoulders bounce relentlessly around in our minds. When that happens, there is no peace. There are problems in life that seem impossible to solve. Anxiety can plunge us into a seemingly irreversible depression. Stuck in a space not knowing which way to turn, no way out, frozen. Sharing with another person can help melt the ice that holds us fast. Taking a moment to turn to God in prayer certainly makes a difference. “Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:6-7)
“Humble yourselves, therefore, under God’s mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.” (1 Peter 5:6-7)

There is no need to feel alone in times of uncertainty and need. If you are facing one of life’s many challenges and don’t know which way to turn. Turn to God and say something to someone, because you are not alone. Sometimes we need to share our burdens. Chances are someone has or is experiencing the same thing. Our Sold Out Church family is just that, family. Prayer and sharing with another person can change everything. God puts people on our path in times of need.

“Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up.” (Ecclesiastes 4:9-10)

I know from experience that it is not good to hold onto whatever it is that is causing anxiety and fear. Feelings that nothing is going right no matter what you do. This can be extinguished by saying “Hey, I’m hurting.” How can a friend help, if you lead everyone to think everything is okay, when it is not. ✍️ Jim Ellis
