FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Contentment

“I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.” (Philippians 4:10-13)

Where can contentment be found? True happiness in the home and at the workplace, comfortable with the way things are. Comfortable but still striving to grow, not stuck on a plateau where there is little chance of reaching full potential. Some situations appear to be impossible to overcome. Many people have been in very bad places. Prison is one of those places where every familiar part of life is stripped away. There is constant pressure from so many different personalities and authority figures with ice cold hearts. Cut off from the outside world; family and friends are sorely missed.

Unable to cope with the consequences of my actions that sent me to prison, I accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior. It was then that I started to read the Bible. It was then that I read Philippians 4:10-13 and realized I could draw strength through Christ and be content, no matter what the circumstances. It was then that everything in my life changed. I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength to cope with whatever comes down the path at me.

GOD WILL BE WITH YOU

Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them. Be strong and very courageous . . . Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go. (Josh. 1:6-7, 9)

Joshua knew what it was to be afraid. For years he had been second in command, Moses' right hand man. But now it was his turn to lead. The children of Israel weren't just going to waltz in and pick up the Promised Land like a quart of milk; they were going to have to fight for it. And Moses was not going with them. If Joshua was completely confident about the situation, why would God have had to tell them over and over and over again not to be afraid? In fact, God gives him a special word of encouragement: "As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Josh 1:5). How was God "with Moses?" As a mighty warrior. Remember the plagues? Remember all those Egyptian soldiers drowned with their horses and chariots out there in the Red Sea? It was after that display of God's strength that the people of Israel sang, "The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name" (Exodus 15:3). God fought for Moses and for Israel; then he covenanted to Joshua to do the same, and they took down Jericho and every other enemy.

God will do the same for you. He has promised never to leave you or forsake you. He will stay by your side. Just ask Him, that is all you need to do, just ask Him. He is waiting to hear your cry for Him to be with you in all you do. He will be there, he really will.

JESUS IS MY NEW LIFE

Jesus is my greatest friend
I walk with him each day
Each night I bow before his throne
this is what I pray. . .

I thank you Lord for my new life,
You saved my soul from hell,
You broke sins chains around my neck,
You freed me from it's jail,

Then You wiped away my tears,
You filled my heart with love,
It pours down on me like the rain,
Sent from God above,

You taught me how to live again,
Then took away my pain,
You Told me, "Child, now take my hand"
HEAVEN IS YOUR GAIN.

You softly whispered in my ear,
Come take my sword and staff,
Go to those who've gone astray,
Lead them to my path.

So thank You Lord for my new life,
I pray I make you proud,
My heart it yearns for the day,
We gather in the clouds.

IN JESUS NAME
