MARCH 2026

SOLD OUT MISSION STATEMENT

Take the love of Jesus into a broken world to those who struggle, feel lonely, hopeless and abandoned. We accomplish this by bringing together people who would isolate or are alone through outreach, social events serving holiday meals, meeting physical needs and providing emotional support.

The Sold Out Newsletter was put out for about two years. The publication was put to rest for a season...but now we are back.

SOLD OUT NEWSLETTER

PUBLICATION XXII WWW.IAMSOLOUT.COM JUNE 2020

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to take the Word of God out into a broken world to those who struggle and feel lonely, hopeless and abandoned. Going out and sharing the message that there is hope. That Jesus Christ saves souls from the muck and mire setting the lost on a solid foundation.

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord. "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8-9)

SOLD OUT COFFEE HOUSE

OPEN EVERY SATURDAY MORNING 8:00AM TO 11:00AM
The Sold Out Coffee House: a place for not just a great cup of coffee. If you are a new resident or have been at the Continental for a season or two, it is a perfect place to get to know some really good Christian people in fellowship.

THE CONTINENTAL FOOD PANTRY

During these uncertain times, there are many people out of work, it is important to know that food is available for everyone. We are blessed to be receiving donations from several different sources. Produce, dairy, bread, and ready-made frozen meals. There is no reason for anyone to be hungry. Distribution is Monday, Tuesday and Friday between the hours of 3:00 pm and 4:00 pm. Need something, say something.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

This was always my favorite spot to share. I had always enjoyed writing for this newsletter, giving me the chance to be creative. I don't know what ideas will come to me on this page. I don't even know who it will reach. But I do know that there could be someone out there who might benefit from the words on this page. I believe that whatever I write, is inspired by God. I still believe that I have been called to write this. I answer that call once more.

There is a place in this letter for a reader to contribute. A testimony, perhaps a poem. What's on your mind?

The blank page is an artist's canvas to create a masterpiece. It's a sculptor's lump of clay to be molded into something magnificent. It's a place for a writer to assemble the right words in the right order to create an unforgettable story. All three are gifts from God. I encourage, accept, and challenge anyone who would be called to contribute to this newsletter.

THE PRODIGAL MAN

Submitted by Michael Taylor June 2020

There were multiple scars on the walls of my heart,
They came overtime, as I walked through the dark.
Locked in the grips of my selfish pursuit, I offered myself to Satan's cold noose. Fighting my battles, I struggled within, drowning in darkness, and the pleasures of sin. Having

No identity, I was playing a part, but nothing was worth it, the emptiness it brought. A voice kept calling me, calling me back, to a time in my past, before I lost track. Who was I, where was I, the one from before, how had I gotten here, behind this locked door? Memories of failure replayed in my mind, weary and listless, I'd lost track of all time.
Then there came a knock, behind that locked door,
something was happening, too profound to ignore.
I said what this is, who is it that's there? The answer came softly, the voice like a dream It's Jesus your savior Won't you let me in? My heart started to race, and I was stuck to the floor, knock after knock came on that locked door.
Finally, I answered uncertain what to say, I can't get it open, It's always locked that way. It hasn't been opened in a very long time, I can't find the key to that door in my mind.
He said, if you'll just but answer a question for me, I'll get it open, for I Am the key. He said, "Have you grown weary of the life you have now? Will you yield to my forgiveness and the peace that I give? My resistance drained away at the sound of his voice, I wanted what he offered, in that moment, my heartfelt choice.
Suddenly, the door burst open unto glorious light,
the Lord stood there smiling, with his beautiful face,
With a look in those eyes, that bridged time and all space.

I fell on my knees, tears unbidden, streamed down my cheeks.
My whole body trembled; my strength became weak.
He welcomed me home, said he'd waited so long,
to heal my brokenness and fill my heart with his song.
